

Education Quotes

- The most educationally successful people are the ones who decide what they want out of education – that is priority one.
- Until the world gets its bearing right in the employment creation, nothing is likely to work right after graduation.
- The amount of money ploughed into education means nothing when it does not arrest the unemployment problems of the world.
- In the apprenticeship system, when you give a cloth, you are calling for training to come forth. In a school system, you are doing a master's degree without becoming a master. It takes more than a paper qualification to become a master.
- Formal education is to prepare you as an employee for the government or private sector. But, self-education is to prepare you as a thinker, brain-teaser or problem-solver.
